Residents Protest Any Change in City Landmark

Protesting Albany Hill residents packed the City Council chambers Monday night to voice their objections to the proposed plan for leveling away the upper portion of the famed landmark to make way for a multi-million dollar real estate development.

The proposed plan, which calls for the removal of about 8,000,000 cubic yards of earth and rock from the top of the hill and the subsequent development of about 300 homesites, was officially presented to the Planning and Zoning Commission Monday night by C. H. Eccleston, local realtor and developer.

Eccleston and a 50-member sponsoring committee proposed to cut some 200 feet off the hill to develop a 50-acre subdivision. He said about $10,000,000 to $12,000,000 would be involved between the time the earth was removed from the hill and the property offered for sale. To become operative, the plan would have to gain approval of the Planning Commission and the City Council.

Other former stars appearing in the alumni lineup will be Dick Johnson, most valuable player of 1950; Dick Pawson, who set the CCCAL scoring record the same year, and Jack Lockhart, former all-county Bee played and currently with the University of California's 145's.

Public Meeting Called

A group composed of Albany Hill property owners today have joined forces to oppose the development of the multi-million dollar hill project as proposed by Realtor C. H. Eccleston and his sponsoring committee.

A public meeting of citizens to discuss the controversial issue has been called for Thursday, March 12th, 8 p.m., at Cornell School Auditorium.

John C. Longaker, former Councilman and member of the Board of Education, will preside.

Eccleston's sponsors, composed of local property owners and businessmen, have named an executive committee to carry out a far-reaching publicity campaign. The committee includes Joseph Villa, Harold Denham, Mrs. Minnie Lou Eakin, Fred Granthoff, William McCauley, John Fleich, Richard M. Thomssen, Joseph Y. Young and Eccleston.

The Planning Commission Monday night took the plan under consideration and called for a joint meeting and public hearing with the Council. The date was not set.

Although the plan has not been brought before the Council, two petitions and five letters were presented objecting to the proposed development. The petitions, one of which contained 36 names and the other 19, both protested any plan to remove rock from the hill or change its present zoning status.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Popper of 706 Gateview Ave. said in a letter that they were "opposed to having a quarry operation in our neighborhood for the next eight or 10 years."

Mrs. Catherine J. Webb of 743 Washington Ave., wrote that "a rock quarry by any other name would smell as sweet."

In another letter, Robert W. Conley of 717 Jackson St. wrote that "since the proposed project is practically in my front yard I am violently opposed to the proposal to turn the residential area in which I live into a gigantic quarry. They can't dig the dirt without machinery and spreading dust through the area."

Blanche Vranina of 887 Washington Ave., said, "In addition to the destruction of the hill's natural beauty, it is inevitable that there will be damage to present homes."

I SAVED $116.86 ON THE CAR I BOUGHT

"I made over a 50% down payment on a late-model car. I was told it would cost me $257.60 to insure the car and finance the balance of $700.00. Lucky for me I'd talked to a State Farm agent first, because I used the Bank Plan instead and paid an insurance and financing charge of only $140.74. I saved $116.86." (One of many actual cases.)

Many People Assume Finance Rates Are Standard THEY ARE NOT!

The Bank Plan offers you two proven money-saving methods. Low-cost financing through a nearby bank and low-cost preferred-risk insurance rates. Get your own figures on the cost of the car you want and COMPARE them with Bank Plan costs FIRST! Call or see your State Farm agent BEFORE you buy.

"At home" today at 1051 Stannage Ave. are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Staehli (Virginia Borreani), who exchanged the wedding vows at a recent nuptial mass at St. Jerome's Catholic Church in El Cerrito. Father Louis J. Miller officiated at the 10 a.m. ceremony, followed by a reception attended by over 60 guests at the home of Mrs. Zita Barrella, of 1043 Key Route Blvd. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Borreani of 713 Jackson St., wore a baby blue fitted suit, with accessories of a pink velour hat and navy blue suede shoes. She wore a white orchid and carried a white prayer book.

The new Mrs. Staehli is a graduate of Holy Names High School in Oakland and attended Contra Costa Junior College. She is presently employed as a dental assistant. The benedict is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Staehli of the Stannage Ave. address and is employed with the Standard Oil Co. He is a graduate of St. Mary's College High School and served in the US Air Force in Florida and Japan. Ronald Vier served as best man.

The youngsters made the tour on a charter bus and were accompanied by PTA mothers, Mrs. Albert Liotta, Mrs. Blythe Williams and Mrs. Robert Peters.

Sgt. Onweller Gets Promotion

Sergeant First Class Robert E. Onweller, whose wife, Hildeko, lives at 1107 Ordway St., recently graduated from the Seventh Army's Non-Commissioned Officers Academy at Munich, Germany.

During the six-week course, he was taught techniques of combat leadership, including infantry squad tactics and deployment of men and equipment in the field. Students were carefully selected by their organization commanders before attending the school.

SFC Onweller, who was previously stationed at Fort Riley, Kans., arrived overseas in November, 1952, and is presently assigned to Headquarters Detachment of the 56th Quartermaster Battalion.

Onweller is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Onweller of Beaver-ton, Mich.

Local Seaman Serving Aboard USS Missouri

The Missouri was the scene of the surrender of the Japanese to the Allied powers on September 2, 1945, in Tokyo Bay.

Pack 7 Gives Advancements

Members of Albany Cub Pack 7 today hold advancements following a recent awards' night held at Martin School.

Sponsored by the Cornell-Vista Dads' Club, Chairmann Wally Cook presided over the meeting.

The pack was awarded the Proficiency Badge at a recent scout exposition, the highest award obtainable, for its fine showing of handicraft and participation.

Cubmaster Larry Cassell conducted a graduation ceremony for Cubs Kenny Moyle, Paul Matheson and Michael Cook, each receiving a Boy Scout manual as a gift from the pack.

Committeeman Shirley Weeks presented advancement to the following:

Jimmy Sylvester, Michael Nausin, Teddy McCain, Charles McEachern, Denny Dowling, Glen Weeks, Spencer LeGaut, and Hollis Black. Musical entertainment was furnished by Bruz Paine, piano; Don Biagi, accordion, and Denny Dowling, accordion.

Cub Dad Charles Walker, accompanied by Mrs. Darlene McEachern at the piano, led group singing of several numbers.

Baptists to Hear Evangelist Sunday

Ken Cummings, Youth for Christ evangelist in Europe, will speak at the 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m., services Sunday at the First Baptist Church, Solano and Pomona Aves.

Mrs. Cummings will draw a Bible chalk picture using the magic "black" light, while her husband sings and speaks. This combination, said the Rev. A. O. Odgaard, pastor, is one of the most beautiful and effective ways of presenting the Gospel he has ever witnessed.

'Gives Me More Pep,' Says Albany Blood Donor After Giving 33 Times

It isn't just because he's seen 53 cousins go to war that Ray Henderson of Albany has given 33 pints of blood to the Red Cross since the start of World War II. That would have been a good enough reason, but he has another, which he explained today at his home at 953 Ordway Street after rolling up his sleeve to start his fifth gallon of blood.

"My doctor told me I'd feel better if I would donate a pint of blood often," Henderson said. "I started with direct transfusions in hospitals before the Red Cross first asked for blood, but the Red Cross way is much simpler."

Does he feel better as the doctor promised? That's right. The 33-time donor says he has lots more pep after he visits the blood bank.

It doesn't take long—a mere three minutes to fill the pint bottle, according to Henderson. The whole visit to the bloodmobile does not keep him long from his work as an engineer at the Albany High School swimming pool.

He and his wife Florence have 11-year-old twin boys, Bill and Rod, and one girl, Sally Ann, who is three. Bill and Rod went with their father to watch him give blood last time. Now they keep asking when they'll be old enough to donate some, too.

There's another angle to this blood business some people may miss, the husky donor added. "When you give blood, the first thing the Red Cross does is to give you a physical check up—temperature, blood pressure and so on. Every so often I hear someone told to go see a doctor for a further check. It's worth a lot to anyone to be examined that way."

Albany will be visited by the bloodmobile unit of the Alameda-Contra Costa County Medical Association every three months from now on. Mrs. Benjamin Black, administrator of the blood program for Berkeley Red Cross, says that weekly visits will be made to Berkeley besides the Albany days.

To get back to those 53 cousins—one of them is still in Korea, and Henderson hopes he won't need any

Red Cross blood. Another cousin returned recently after being wounded in action. "A .45 caliber bullet went through him," the multiple donor explained. "Maybe some of my blood helped save his life. That's the best reason to go on giving blood as often as I can."

Golden Gate Fields Names New Directors

Six new directors were selected by stockholders of the Pacific Turf Club, Inc., operators of Golden Gate Fields, at their annual meeting, replacing a half-dozen board members who retired because of pressure of personal business.

The new board then re-elected Edward R. Young, prominent Los Angeles attorney, as president, and B. W. Bailey, retired San Francisco soap company executive, as vice-president and general manager. Also reelected vice-presidents were Frank W. Clark, the track's former general manager, and William G. Gilmore, San Francisco steel man.

Lewis A. Marsten, widely-known San Francisco oil man, was elected treasurer to succeed Frank S. Richards, Oakland attorney who was one of the six retiring directors.
